And in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit born of the Virgin Mary; suffered under Pontius Pilot, was crucified, dead, and buried; He descended into hell. The third day He rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven and sitteth at the right hand of God the Father Almighty. From thence He shall come to judge the living and the dead. “The Return from Being Broken”

John 21:15-17

Pastor Wayne Sneller

9:30 a.m.

August 9, 2020

How can I come back to a relationship with Jesus Christ after failing him in my faith walk?

The Bible teaches us how to handle the disappointment we have with ourselves by recording how Jesus led Peter through this experience that would remove the cloud of Peter’s denial.

We experience this reconciling act of forgiveness by:

- _____ that God is with me.
 - When we are hurting we often forget where God is. “The Lord is close to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in Spirit.” Psalm 34:18
 - Three things to remember when you are in pain:
 - God is _____
 - God _____
 - God will _____ you out
- _____ the hurt. “Lord you know everything. You know that I love you.” John 21:17
 - Let it _____. How? I must stop focusing on what was _____ and start focusing on what is _____.
- _____ on God’s resources.

God uses three things to renew us:

- God’s _____ – Fill your mind with scripture. Psalm 119:25, 52 says, “I am completely discouraged...receive me by your Word. Your Word has been my comfort.”
- God’s _____ – We _____ each other. “The God of all comforts, comforts us in all our troubles so that we can comfort others with the comfort we ourselves have received from God.” 2 Corinthians 1:3-4
- God’s _____
 - The Holy Spirit is called our _____.
 - When you invite Jesus Christ into your life, you put that _____ of comfort into you!

Application: Failure doesn’t _____ you from being part of God’s family.

- Your story is still being written!
- The only way that failure can get the last word in our life is if we choose to let it. We serve a God who is able to take our _____ and _____ and still use us to bring glory to his name!
