Thank You Chuck and Deb Johnson would like to thank Sully First Reformed Church for all the support we and our family have received during the time after the unexpected passing of Chuck’s son and Deb’s stepson Scott on November 3rd. We know it is hard to know what to say after something like this happens, but we want to thank you from the bottom of our hearts for your prayers, attending Scott’s visitation on such a cold night, cards, calls, stories you’ve shared with us about Scott, and even just a word on the street letting us know you are thinking about us. And many special thanks to the Consistory and our Care Team. We have been blessed to have such compassionate friends in our lives. Thank you and God bless
